1. Vehicles are not allowed on the grounds while fair patrons are present (No exceptions)
2. Animals will be accepted in the showroom from 3:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. Monday, the day before fair begins.
3. This is a cooped show. All animals shall be placed in assigned coops. Carrying cages must be removed from the fair grounds after animals are cooped.
4. Each animal shall have a temporary coop number placed in it's right ear by it's owner at check-in.
5. All rabbits must be identified by a permanent and legible tattoo in the left ear prior to being cooped on Monday. Tattoos will not be provided by the show staff.
6. All rabbits must be at least 12 weeks of age and meet minimum weight requirements as printed in the ARBA book of standards, by the first day of fair.
7. All animals must remain on exhibit from 8:00 am Tuesday through 8:00 pm Sunday. Only animals that become ill may be excused for early release by a superintendent.
8. Rabbits must be entered under the true owner's name.
9. Diseased or unsightly animals shall be removed from the fair grounds at the superintendent's discretion and entry fees will be forfeited.
10. All animals are entered at the owner's risk. Our best efforts will be given to provide for the health and safety of each animal in our care. However, we accept no liability for injury, illness or death of an animal.
11. Show staff will feed each animal daily using a single brand of feed and fresh water will be provided continuously to all rabbits. Owners desiring to feed their own animals must obtain a special sticker from the superintendent and attach it to the coop card. If you choose to feed your own animals you will be required to provide your own feed. You will need to carry your feed in with you each day and take it with you when you leave. There is no room in the show room to store additional feed. You may feed only once in a 24-hour period. Cage doors may be opened only to discard of old feed and replace with new. The rest of the time the cage doors are to remain closed. All caution should be made not to disrupt fair goers. No passes will be given for fair entry.
12. Any exhibitor, who is disruptive or interferes in any way, is subject to having their stock removed from the show room and will forfeit entry fees and any premiums due them.
13. Any entry changes must be done through and approved by one of the superintendents.
14. Submission of an entry form indicates that you understand and agree to abide by all rules as set forth.

15. Judges decisions and remarks are final.
16. If you wish to sell stock you must complete and sign a sales form and agreement. A non-refundable sales fee of $1 must be submitted along with the sales form. All sales fees will be applied towards to the Build A Barn Fund. All rabbit sale transactions must be made through a superintendent. A "For Sale" sticker will be issued for each animal listed on your sales agreement. You may display business cards, however no other sale signs will be allowed without Superintendent's authorization. Animals cooped as 4-H entries are exempt from the sales fee.
17. At checkout on Sunday each animal's ear number will be checked against the owners entry form or buyer's official sales receipt prior to leaving the showroom.
18. Any rabbits not collected by 8:00 pm Sunday evening will be dealt with at the superintendent's discretion.
19. This is an official ARBA sanctioned show. All disqualification's and ARBA class structures and rules shall apply, in addition to those described above.
20. Fairgrounds, Fair Management, Fair Staff and Rabbit Superintendents are not responsible for lost, stolen, or misplaced animals. Purchaser assumes all liability regarding purchased animals.
